HOFFMAN HOMES:

Our entire history is marked by a spirit of love and service to children. It was in this spirit, in 1910, that George and Agnes Hoffman donated 192 acres of prime Pennsylvania farmland to the United Church of Christ (UCC), to be used as an orphanage. Though childless, the couple felt moved by the plight of homeless children.

Many children came to the orphanage and stayed here with their siblings until they were 18 years old. The children worked on the dairy farm and helped with harvesting the fields, and, in turn, lived in a caring and bountiful home among other children. (Check newsletter for more information.)
