

THOSE BEING REMEMBERED TODAY

November 1, 2020

Leader: We remember all those whose labors are now ended. We remember those from St. Paul's United Church of Christ who entered into eternal rest this past year

Kevin G. Miller Sr. 1930-2019 November 8, 2019

Kevin was the son of the late Sheridan and Lizzie Miller. He was preceded in death by his daughter, Lora, and two brothers, Donald and Archie. Kevin was the First accounting teacher at Madison College – now JMU. He was elected to Virginia House of delegates, later, elected to the State Senate of Virginia serving five terms. Kevin is survived by his wife, Frances and a son, Kevin Jr., a daughter, Stephanie. Also, surviving are his sisters, Wanda, Diane and brothers, Frank and Clinton, along with many nieces, nephews, cousins, and two sisters-in-law, Jane and Chris.

Clemence Virginia "Sis" Bruce 1925-2019 November 27, 2019

Clemence was the daughter of the late Edwin and MaryBell Tamkin. Preceding her in death was her husband, Robert Bruce, and her siblings, Fleta Boyer, Mazie Cullers, Leroy Tamkin and Fay Coates. "Sis" was known as a hard worker and worked for Avtex for 46 years. She is survived by 13 nephews and nieces. "Sis" was an aunt to Wayne Cullers, and great niece, Shelly Eye.

Elizabeth "Betty" Hudson Crane 1923-2020 February 6, 2020

Betty was born to Frank and Anna Hudson in Dunkirk, NY. She moved to Woodstock to be with her son, Joe Lehnen. She is survived by son, Joe and his wife, Kaye, two granddaughters Katherine (Katie) with husband, Andrew, and Hanna with husband, Andrew. Preceding her were husbands, Joseph Lehnen (1966) and James Crane (1973), along with all her brothers and sisters and one step-son. Betty was proud of her family and their background beginning on Virginia's Eastern Shore and in Massachusetts. Betty was a member of St. Paul's. She loved her church family.

John "Robin" Robinson Lambert 1960-2020 February 9, 2020

Robin was the son of Trudy Knode and the late Carroll Lambert. He was preceded in death by his father, his son, Andrew and his nephew, Adam. Surviving with his mother are two sisters, Mary Miller and BJ Goodier and God-daughter, Rachel. Robin was a restaurant manager and worked at many places in the area. He loved to bake, cook and to fly fish. He published several books, including "This Book is Not Perfect but Neither Are We" about his growing up years in Woodstock. Robin was a member of St Paul's UCC.

Clyde Cecil Hunt 1957-2020 March 5, 2020

Clyde was the son of the late Arden and Ruth Hunt. He was preceded by his wife, Mary and three siblings, Margaret, Becky, and Arnold. He is survived by son, Cory and his wife, Kayla, a daughter, Brandy Payne and her husband, Troy. Also surviving are grandchildren – Jesse, Mary, Melody and Anya along with his five brothers, Gordon (Janet), Larry (Connie), Mickey, Edward, and Steve. He was a natural athlete and played many sports and had a wonderful singing voice. Clyde and his wife bravely fought several serious illnesses. The family attends St. Paul's and participated in many of its activities. PS: Clyde loved his Pittsburgh Steelers!

Linda Sue Eye 1946-2020 March 11, 2020

Linda was the youngest daughter of the late Lionel and Lottie Eye. She belonged to Strasburg UMC and retired from Verizon. Preceding her in death along with her parents were five siblings and a nephew. Surviving Linda are one brother, Lawrence "Buck" and one sister, Jane, along with numerous nieces, nephews including Chris Eye, and cousins. She is remembered for her quiet presence, inner strength, independence, and abiding love of family.

Reverend Dr. Charles Wood 1943-2020 March 11, 2020

Rev. Wood was son of the late Charles and Mildred Wood. He was preceded in death by his wife of 52 years, Doris. He is survived by four children, Rebecca, Christopher, Charles III and Thomas, five grandchildren, brother, Steve Wood and niece, Jackie. He was a beloved preacher and supplied for many local churches. He was an interim pastor and guest preacher at St. Paul's UCC and was also a beloved teacher at CHS and the other county high schools. Rev. Charles authored the book, "The Good Life".

Ann Benchoff Stamm 1929-2020 March 26, 2020

Ann was the daughter of the late Guy and Katharine Benchoff. When she was younger, she attended St. Paul's, Woodstock High School and MMA. She was very enthusiastic about helping others through the library, as a volunteer reader for the blind and print-disabled, and helping others through groups to which she belonged. She was an accomplished organist and played at many churches. Ann was married to Dr. Charles Stamm during the Cold War as he served in Alaska. She is survived by her husband of 64 years, four children, 5 grandchildren, and a sister, Barbara.

Daniel Snyder Hottel 1925-2020 April 7, 2020

Danny was the only son of the late Lester and Anna Hottel. He was preceded in death by his wife, Virginia and a grandson, Trevor. Dan lived in Woodstock and was very proud of his town. He started working at the age of nine. He delivered ice and coal. Later working for Shenandoah's Pride, he became the Woodstock milkman and delivered milk for 37 years. After his retirement, he worked for Muhlenberg Motors and the Town of Woodstock for twenty years. His passion was being a member of the Woodstock Fire Department and served for 78 years. He is survived by one son, Philip and wife, Candace, grandson Zachary and wife, Ayla and a cousin. Dan often said "it was his family and friends that made his life great." Dan was a faithful member of Emanuel Lutheran Church.

Paul Carlton Mumaw 1935-2020 June 5, 2020

Paul was born to the late Guy and Mary Mumaw. After serving in the Army, Paul worked for the Town of Woodstock. He enjoyed carpentry and woodworking and was willing to help others. Paul is survived by his wife, Nancy Cave Mumaw, a son, Michael Mumaw and 2 sisters. He was also a brother-in-law to Faye Cullers.

Martha Mathis Kennedy 1936-2020 June 30, 2020

Martha was daughter of the late Huford and Bertha Mathis. She is survived by her husband, Randall, four children, Randa, Katrina, Randall Jr, and Bret. She taught her children a strong foundation of Church, especially the Bible. Martha was involved with the schools while raising her four children which gave her much joy. She bestowed this enthusiasm upon not only her children but beyond to extended family and friends. She has twelve grandchildren. She was long-time volunteer at Shen-Paco. Randall Jr. (Bubba) and family are members of St Paul's.

Imogene "Jean" Luttrell Marston 1934-2020 July 9, 2020

Jean was preceded in death by Harold "Bud", husband of 60 years, and her parents, J. W. and Annie Luttrell. She is survived by her children, Debbie, Wayne, and Wanda, also eight grandchildren and six great grandchildren. She was a member of Woodstock Methodist Church, and received a lot of enjoyment from doing things for the church. Jean retired from Shenandoah County School system and dedicated her life to her family. She enjoyed camping and vacationing and cooking, and looking for a good deal on TV. Jean loved cooking for her family. Travis Cooper (grandson) and his family are active members of St Paul's.

Randall (Bubba) Kennedy, Jr. 1955-2020 July 11, 2020

Randall was the oldest son of Randall Kennedy, Sr. and the late Martha Kennedy. He was husband to Abbe and married for 40 years. He was father to Francie, Randall III, and Kelsey. He cherished his two grandsons, Oliver and Mathis and sister-in-law, Candice and brother-in-law, John Sullivan, and many nieces and nephews and cousins. Bubba was dedicated to managing Kennedy Konstrution. He enjoyed farming and raising cattle. Bubba was an avid outdoors man – enjoying hunting and fishing. His joy was his dogs, gardening and watching the hummingbirds at their feeders. Bubba and his family are active members of St. Paul’s congregation.

Beverly Knode Dahlgren 1938-2020 July 19, 2020

Beverly was the daughter of the late John and Margaret Knode. She was a secretary for the US State Department and traveled extensively in the USA and around the world. She was preceded in death by her husband, Robert. She then came to live in Woodstock and became a member of St Paul’s. Along with husband, Bev was preceded in death by her nephew, Robin and great nephew, Adam. She is survived by her sister, Trudy Knode, two nieces, Mary Lambert and BJ Goodier and a great niece, Erin. She was a member of the Eastern Star and the Red Hat Club. She was an avid fan of Redskins football and family get-togethers.

Alvin David French 1945-2020 August 5, 2020

The son of the late Thurman and Kathryn, David was also preceded in death by his wife, Nancy, two sisters and one brother and son, David. He is survived by three sisters, Barbara Ward, a member of St. Paul’s, Nancy, and Kathy; one brother, Thurman, Jr, and stepsister, Mary. Also surviving are one son and one daughter. Alvin was raised by Aunt Hattie and Uncle Glen Brewster. He served in USAF as a Master Mechanic and owned Frenchy’s Truck and Transmission, loved drag racing and anything involving the outdoors.

Jerry Franklin Lambert 1941 – 2020 October 14, 2020

Jerry was born in Edinburg to William “Ches” and Evelyn Lambert. He was married to Betty Miller Lambert. He is survived by daughter Dawn Kavaras, stepdaughter, Kim Shrum, brother, Wayne “Butch” Lambert, sister, Bonnie Williams, and grandchildren, Josh Shrum and Jenna Hoffmaster. Jerry and Betty worked together in the nursing home business for many years, in Woodstock and in Staunton. Jerry loved bluegrass music and also obtained his private pilot’s license. He quietly supported many noteworthy charities especially ones for children.

Congregational Response: For all that they were by nature and faith and to those who loved them, we give you thanks, O God.

Leader: We remember all those close to our hearts who have entered eternal rest this year. (Bell)

Congregational Response: For all that they were by nature and faith and to those who loved them, we give you thanks, O God.

Closing Prayer: (unison) Merciful and loving God, we are renewed by the courage of the saints who have gone before us. We are inspired by the saints who walk among us today. Thanks be to God for this great cloud of witnesses. Amen